6-Run Fourth Nets Crown

Relief Hurter Sherry Preserves L.A. Win

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers won the World Series today when they crushed the Chicago White Sox, 9-3 to write a new baseball "rags to riches" story.

A riotous fourth inning in which the Dodgers came up with six runs was the difference and crushed the White Sox's hopes of removing the stigma set on them 40 years ago when the "Black Sox" threw the series to the Cincinnati Reds.

Homer by Duke Snider, Wally Moon and pinch-hitter Chuck Essegian—his second as a substitute batsman in the series powered the Dodgers to victory.

While starter Johnny Podres could not hold the eight-run lead which the Dodgers gave him in the first four innings, Dodger relief ace Larry Sherry came on to thwart the White Sox and win his second game of the series.

WHITE SOX FIRST
Amarcio grounded out.
Fox lined to Moon.
Landis bled out a slow ground ball near the third base line for a single.
Lollar forced Landis.
No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

DODGERS FIRST
The skies brightened and the sun broke through just as the game started. Gilliam was called out on strikes.
Neal singled.
Moon flied to Landis.
Snider walked.
Dodgers forced Snider.
No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

WHITE SOX SECOND
Neal threw out Klusazewski.
Snider walked.
Gilliam grounded into a double play, Podres to Neal to Dodges.
No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

DODGERS SECOND
Larker walked.
Rosenboro flied out.
Willie grounded out, Larker going to second.
Podres flied to Landis.
No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

DODGERS THIRD
Gilliam lined to Smith.
Neal struck out.
Moon walked.
Snider hit a home run 400 feet into the left center field stands, scoring Moon ahead of him. It was his 11th World Series homer, tying him for second place with Mickey Vernon on the all-time list, behind Babe Ruth with 15.

Snider's two runs batted in set a new record for the National League in series competition, giving him a career total of 26.
Dodges popped to Fox.
Two runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

WHITE SOX THIRD
McAnany popped to Neal.
Wynn struck out.
Amarcio grounded out.
No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

DODGERS FOURTH
Larker singled to center.
Demeter ran for Larker.
Rosenboro sacrificed Demeter to second.
Willis singled, scoring Demeter.
Dodges doubled, scoring Willis.
Wynn was taken out and replaced by Donovan.

Gilliam walked.
Neal doubled, scoring Podres and Gilliam, and putting the Dodgers ahead, 6-0.
Moon hit a home run, scoring Neal ahead of him, to give Los Angeles an 8-0 lead.

Donovan was taken out and replaced by Lown.
Snider grounded out.
Dodges bled out a slow bouncing ball to Amaricio, and went to second when Amaricio threw wildly to first for an error.

Demeter grounded out.
Six runs, six hits, one error, one left.

WHITE SOX FOURTH
Demeter went to center field for Dodgers, with Snider shifting to right.
Fox fouled to Willis.
Landis was hit by a pitched ball. The ball hit him on the helmet.
Lollar walked, Landis going to second.

Klusazewski hit a home run against the railing separating the upper and lower deck of the right field stands, scoring Landis and Lollar ahead of him.

Village Child Critically Hurt In Car Mishap

10-Year-Old Boy Struck Down in Pedestrian Walk

Dennis Wayne Nightengale, 10, is in critical condition at Desert Hospital today after being hit by an automobile while crossing Indian Avenue at Amado last night.

Nightengale started across the street—in a cross walk—from the east side with a companion, when a car, driven by Mrs. Enid Rauber, 25, 366 Camino Alturas, driving south on Indian, struck him.

HE SUFFERED multiple internal injuries of the chest, several broken ribs, and a broken arm. He has special nurses on duty with him at Desert Hospital today.

Mrs. Rauber said she "did not see" the youth until he was directly in front of her car, but officers said that according to witnesses, cars in the north-bound lane had stopped to allow the boys to cross.

A citation was issued to Mrs. Rauber for failure to yield right of way to a pedestrian in crosswalk.

Khrushchev Tells Views on Rockets

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told the American moon rocket which he said "sinks to the bottom of the sea" and credited Russia's scientific successes to the Communist way of life in a speech reported today by Moscow Radio.

Khrushchev contrasted the Soviet rocket now in orbit around the moon and the American moon-shot failure last week. He said it wasn't money but the lack of communism that put the U.S. behind.

B47 Crash Kills Entire Crew
LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—A B47 crashed and burned at the Lincoln Air Force Base today.

It was believed that all persons aboard the airplane were killed. The plane crashed as it took off from the air base.

Conservatives Favored in Vote

LONDON (UPI)—Britain's voters cast their ballots today in a tense general election that will decide the governing party for the next five years.

Angel View Launches Search For New 'Teen Angel'

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Annual search for Miss Teen Angel was launched today by the Angel View Crippled Children's Women's Auxiliary in connection with the Penny Carnival Nov. 5, 6 and 7.

Teen-age girls from Desert Hot Springs, Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert and Indio are invited to enter the contest by filling out the entry blank appearing on Page 2 of today's Desert Sun.

ENTRANTS WILL solicit votes at a penny each, with all proceeds going to the Angel View Foundation. Last year $4,800 was raised in this way.

Winner will receive a free trip to Hawaii as her reward, and will be crowned on the final night of the Penny Carnival here on Nov. 7. Her "halo" will be presented by a well known entertainment personality.

ENTRY INTO the contest will close Oct. 13, and the kickoff luncheon will be held Oct. 17 in Palm Springs. Location will be announced later.

The Teen Angel and her Cherubs continue their organization during the year, and this year under the leadership of Teen Angel Diane Copass performed many tasks sponsored by the Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs AVCC Women's Auxiliaries.

A GUIDING committee has been formed to aid the Teen Angels, composed of the following Desert Hot Springs women: Nada Guarney, Rae Horton, Glory Mundy, Marian Moody, Colleen Morey and Diane Little.

The Penny Carnival this year will be held at a location between

PRESIDENT AIN'T COMMENTING ON COYOTE CONCERT

It was 3:10 a. m. yesterday in the desert at nearby La Quinta and President Eisenhower was sleeping peacefully in the home of George E. Allen.

Suddenly, the desert broke loose with the sounds of a zoo at feeding time. Secret Service men hurriedly investigated.

The noise? A band of coyotes fighting on a small ridge just above the President's house.

Presidential comment was left withheld for the present.

Parents Claim Girls Kidnaped By Three Men

HELENA, Mont. (UPI)—The parents of three teen-age girls who disappeared six days ago with two escaped convicts and an ex-convict said today they were convinced the girls were abducted.

The search for the missing girls and the three men moved today from Montana to southern Idaho, where a gas station attendant in Arco said he serviced the stolen 1959 sedan in which the teen-agers left Helena with the men.

Officials had kept the girls' disappearance secret until Wednesday, for fear the convicts and the ex-convict might panic and harm them.

Claudia Fuller and Sharon Balazs, both 17, and Sharon McDowell, 16, apparently climbed willingly into the pink sedan at noon last Friday.

Steinberg to Be Speaker at Noon Meet of CofCs

Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce will hold its monthly meeting at noon, Tuesday, Oct. 20, at the Desert Moon Ranch, Thousand Palms, with Lionel Steinberg of Palm Springs as speaker.

Steinberg, who recently returned from a trip to Israel, is a member of the State Board of Agriculture. His topic will be "Agriculture as it Relates to Foreign Policies."

Directors of the association will meet at 10:30 a. m.

Van Doren May Be Quiz Witness

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional investigators of alleged TV quiz show fixing indicated today that Charles Van Doren, who gained national fame as a $129,000 winner on NBC's "21" program might be invited to testify.

The House subcommittee scheduled a public hearing today on CBS' "Dotto," another of the now-defunct quiz programs, after questioning the co-producer of "21" and his aide into the early morning hours behind closed doors.

THE BOARD members met unofficially in April of last year. Three months later on July 1 the district and the board were legally established.

As its business manager the board selected D. G. Brumwell, superintendent up until that time of the Coachella Valley Union High School District for 15 years.

Brumwell was one of those who took an active part in the preliminary talks leading up to formation of the district.

WITH AN EYE toward having a college opening in the fall of 1961, the board went right to work on its first three major tasks. They were:

1. Selection of an architect.
2. Determination of a college site.
3. Selection of a college president.

MASON WAS appointed by Chairman Mitchell to schedule interviews between the board and architects and also to direct a study of possible sites.

In the succeeding months, the board, with the assistance of the state, went over the more than 25 sites offered. Also during that time the board interviewed some 30 architects.

A screening committee, composed of several leading state educators, was formed to interview candidates for the president's post and then offer a recommendation to the board.

AND AS A RESULT of these first efforts:

A 160-acre site has been purchased in Palm Desert; Dr. Roy C. McCann, former head of Modesto Junior College, is president of the new district, and architects are now working on preliminary drawings.

(Tomorrow's article will take up financing of the college and the problem of a selection of a site.)

JUNIOR COLLEGE SERIES LAUNCHED

By DICK ROWDEN
The Coachella Valley Junior College Board of Trustees has begun laying the foundations of "The College of the Desert." What will it look like? What will it mean to the community? How is it being financed? What are the problems in establishing it? These are some of the questions to be answered in a three-part series to be published in The Desert Sun starting today.

The first article deals with the history of the move to bring the college here and also progress to date.

A junior college for Coachella Valley has long been the dream of educators and leading citizens here. In fact, it was nearly 15 years ago that serious thought was first given to the project.

AROUND THAT time officials of the State Board of Education first discussed the possibility with local school boards in Palm Springs and Indio.

The state educators explained that two requirements would have to be met before the college district could be formed.

1. The area would have to warrant enough students to warrant establishment of the college.

2. The total assessed valuation of land within the district would have to be enough to reduce tax revenue to build and then maintain the project.

Area Accident Claims Fifth Victim Today

INDIO — A head-on collision of two cars claimed its fifth life today.

Real estate man Herbert R. Ebenstein, 63, Hollywood, died in Casita Hospital after the collision 30 miles south of this desert city.

Killed Wednesday night in the accident were his two companions, Mary Delores Piazzi, 21, and Wanda Lou Mann, 23, both of Hollywood, and Elizabeth Curtis Boyd, 71, and Ida Taylor Harris, both of Amarillo, Tex.

The California Highway Patrol said Ebenstein was driving Miss Mann to look at some property. The collision occurred on a slight curve, and the victims were thrown from the vehicles.

Pioneer to Pass Milestone Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Pioneer IV, America's gold-plated artificial satellite around the sun, passes a cosmic milestone today.

At exactly 6 p. m. (p.s.t.) today, the 13 pound instrument package reaches its aphelion — most distant point from the sun.

First Jet Takeoff

By FRED WEIGEL
President Eisenhower made local history today as his Military Air Transport Service jet airliner recorded a dramatic first — the initial takeoff of a fully-loaded Boeing 707 from Palm Springs Airport.

Ike waved goodbye to local dignitaries and Villagers, climbed aboard the massive jet and the hatch clanked shut. The plane, its engines whining, moved to the runway.

ONLOOKERS HELD their breath as the plane moved slowly, its engines screaming, and then midway pushed ahead in a new-found surge of power and lifted from the runway barely 50 feet from the end of the strip.

Taft-Hartley Injunction Hits Dock Strike

Tanned Ike Boards Military Jet, Flies To Washington D.C.

By AL LE ANCE
President Eisenhower ended his Palm Springs vacation and the East Coast dock strike today.

Obviously rested and deeply tanned, the President today ended an eight-day desert visit that combined a medicinal golfing holiday with decisive executive action on the week-old dock strike.

THE PRESIDENT wound up the last of six days of golf at Eldorado Country Club yesterday by marking a score in the low 80's and signing an executive order that called for an injunction to halt the strike.

He took no action on the national steel strike — other than to stave off an allegedly wildcat caravan of local steel workers — but hinted that action on this dispute might follow his return to Washington at about 3 p. m. Eastern time.

The President evinced no signs of the lingering cold that brought him to the desert last Wednesday as he boarded his Air Force 707 transport a moment before the fat-bellied jet roared off a Palm Springs Airport runway at 7 a. m.

STEPPING BRISKLY from a Marine helicopter that ferried him from his La Quinta retreat, the President shook hands with city officials and various civic leaders as he walked towards the jet's passenger loading ramp.

He paused on the top step long enough to raise both arms and flash the famous Eisenhower grin in a jovial salute to a thin line of some 200 Villagers pressed against the airport fence before he stepped into the plane.

The President's final day at the La Quinta home of his Washington and Gettysburg friend, George E. Allen, yesterday was the most hectic of the entire eight-day stay for newsmen covering the desert branch of the White House.

MR. EISENHOWER capped his golfing activities here when he signed an executive order calling for a Federal Court injunction to halt, for 30 days, the dock strike which has paralyzed East Coast shipping for the last week.

Yesterday afternoon, some 150 shouting, sign-waving, strikebound California steel workers caravanned to the Presidential retreat in an abortive attempt to plead personally with the Chief Executive not to exercise the Taft-Hartley Act in the 86-day-old steel strike.

The President offered no comment on this unscheduled demonstration, but his statement on the See IKE, Page 3

At DHS Meeting

Dr. Poliak Tells Of Bond Issue

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Dr. Bernard Poliak, member of the Board of Education, this week spoke at the meeting of the local Parent-Teachers Guild at the local school, and asked for support of the $4,750,000 school bond issue.

After the talk by Dr. Poliak, teachers were introduced and Mrs. Roger Feldman, Guild president, announced committees for the coming year.

ON THE HOSPITALITY committee: Mmes. Betty O. Green, Colleen Morey, Grace Tarbutton and Polly Bayes.

Publicity chairman will be Helen King.

Girl Scout and Brownie chairman will be Mrs. Ruth Jennings, with Betty Green, Ellen Lane, Patty Bayne and Rae Horton on the committee.

PARENTS WERE taken on a trip through classrooms and talked with respective teachers about the subjects the students were studying.

The Guild decided to sponsor a special show for children on Oct. 24, to be held in the multi-purpose room of the school.

TRADING MAY BE POINT ON BERLIN

By ELMER C. WALTER
UPI Financial Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — Resumption of larger scale trading with the Soviet might be a bargaining point in settling the Berlin issue, according to the New York Journal of Commerce.

The Journal, which specializes in foreign trade, believes this may have come up in the Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks at Camp David.

EDITORIALLY, THE Journal points out that among the Western industrial nations the United States is the only one rigidly restricting capital goods exports to Russia.

"Apparently our State Department is determined to block sales to Russia, even if such sales could help to make our total export picture a bit better," it says.

Under the Johnson Act, we cannot extend credit to the Soviet.

ACCORDING TO a recent statement by Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, the U.S. would be more inclined to ease its restrictions on trade with the Soviet Union if there is a "solid agreement" between the two countries on a lend-lease agreement.

The Soviet Union also has a sizeable debt to us that under international law accrued to this regime from the Keresky regime. However, according to Dillon, a lend-lease settlement would encourage the administration to seek congressional approval of an end to the embargo on U.S. imports of furs and crabmeat from Russia.

THE U.S. ALSO might seek Congress's approval to enter a bilateral trade agreement with the Soviet Union, extending most favored nation treatment to selected imports from Russia.

The Journal editorial notes that Khrushchev has said often that the Soviet Union could not trade more with us unless we were willing to do something about the discrimination which now exists against Russia. The editorial said:

"HE REFERRED specifically to the list of strategic materials which names the materials whose exports to Russia is prohibited and our refusal to grant Russian products most favored nation treatment, which means that import duties on Russian goods are generally much higher than those of other countries.

"The slave labor concept in barring some Russian goods from the U.S. market also irks the Russian Premier.

"IN PLEADING for a liberalization of these rules the No. 1 Russian has a point. He touches a sore point when he brings the issue of discrimination up.

"We certainly don't like discrimination against us. What Khrushchev wants in this respect hardly falls within the context of trading 'on his terms'.

"ACTUALLY THE Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks indicated a different give-and-take that would seem to be far more promising. "As long as Russia wants to free herself from trade discrimination why not make her agree to concessions of a political nature in return.

"The settlement of the Berlin issue would be an eminently acceptable first step in this respect. "It actually may have come up in exactly such a way in the discussions between the two statesmen."

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Harry Golden, best selling author and editor of the Carolina Israelite, has notified the Kansas City Press Club that he will not be able to appear in its annual "Griddle Show" here Thursday night, a spokesman said today.

Golden was quoted as saying that a physical checkup Tuesday by New York physicians revealed a heart palpitation which Golden had suffered previously had returned.

He said the physician instructed him to cancel a tour which included his appearance here.

AN OPEN-AIR PARLEY between Presidential Press Secretary James Hagerty, left, and Manuel Sierra, president of a United Steel Workers of America union local from Maywood, capped a desert trek staged by some 150 striking Southern steel workers who attempted to personally plead with the President not to invoke the Taft-

Hartley Act. Halted by California Highway Patrolmen and Secret Service agents, the sign-waving steel workers chant "we want Ike" as Hagerty confers with Sierras a few hundred feet distant from President Eisenhower's La Quinta retreat. (Desert Sun Photo).

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham says Nikita Khrushchev will go to hell. Graham, speaking to the second service of his month-long crusade here, spoke to the Russian premier as though he were present. "Mr. Khrushchev, despite all you say about not believing in God," Graham said.

TOKYO (UPI) — The death toll in typhoon Vera, the worst storm in Japan's history, rose today to a total of 4,253 persons.

An official police survey showed that 900 still were missing in the wake of the storm, which struck central Honshu with 130-mile-per-hour winds on Sept. 27, and 17,693 were injured. Nearly 1,500,000 were left homeless.

"I FEEL FINE," says a grinning, sun-tanned President Eisenhower as he bids goodby to city officials and civic leaders lined up at Palm Springs Airport. Among those on hand to offer farewells

Ostrich Racing To Be Introduced At Date Festival

INDIO — Camel racing, for years one of the entertainment highlights of the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival, will have competition in 1960.

Long-legged ostriches, which like the camels, are native to Arabia, were added to the entertainment fare yesterday at the regular meeting of the Festival's board of directors held at the Fairgrounds.

HOWEVER, IT'S NOT likely that the plumed speedsters will vie against the dromedaries. They will compete in separate events daily prior to the national horse show in the arena. And there will not be pari-mutuel wagering on either race.

The ostriches will tow sulkies similar to those pulled by harness horses. Local personalities will be invited to drive the birds. Bob Fullenwider, secretary-manager, said with a twinkle in his eye indicating there might be more to the sport than meets the eye. Driver's licenses will not be required, he pointed out.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, directors approved a beef auction to be held as part of the Junior Fair program provided the event can be worked out to the mutual benefit of both the Fair and the youngsters.

Admission prices were established. These are $1 for adults, 25 cents for children. Admission to the arena will be $2 for box seats, $1 general admission and 25 cents for children. This same schedule was in force this year.

Festival dates are Feb. 12th through 22nd.

dock dispute was unequivocal.

PRESIDENTIAL PRESS Secretary James Hagerty last night said the President was deeply concerned over a special fact-finding board's report that the dock strike had already curtailed delivery of foodstuffs and fuel to 22 million persons.

The report was flown here from Washington by a Naval jet last night.

Fearful that the strike, if permitted to continue, will "imperil the national health and safety" through shortages of food and vital defense material, President Eisenhower ordered the attorney general to seek an injunction which will halt the strike for an 80-day "cooling-off" period.

HAGERTY SAID the injunction will probably be issued by a New York City Federal District Court some time today, sending some 85,000 striking longshoremen back to work.

Hagerty reported that the President had no comment to offer on the appearance at his La Quinta retreat yesterday of striking steel workers from Maywood, Paramount and Fontana.

The caravan of 28 cars, which passed through Palm Springs at about 1 p.m. yesterday, was halted by the California Highway Patrol at the entrance of a private road to the Allen home, some 500 yards distant from the house.

A SECRET SERVICE agent escorted Manuel Sierras, president of United Steel Workers of America, Local 2058 of Maywood, to Hagerty, who stood by his auto some 200 yards down the road.

Sierras gave Hagerty a prepared statement petitioning the President not to invoke the "vicious Taft-Hartley Act" in the steel strike as the crowd of steel workers held at the roadblock chanted: "We Want Ike."

And that was as close as Sierras could get to the President.

Propane Blast Wraps Austin In Toxic Fumes

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—A propane gas pipeline blew up on the outskirts of Austin early today and quickly spread an explosive and toxic blanket of fumes over a three-mile area.

Policemen, firemen and airmen from Bergstrom Air Force Base, some wearing gas masks, rushed through the streets, pounding on doors to awaken endangered families.

Four hundred families fled.

What Women Want

An old bit of basic advice to men is "never underestimate the power of a woman."

Time has proven over the years that generally, and collectively, women usually get what they want.

Thus there is strong reason to hope for high success of the newest statewide women's organization . . . S.O.S. . . . formed to "stamp out smog."

Combining the power of some 422 separate women's groups in California into this one worthy objective, S.O.S. probably packs the most concentrated and potent feminine determination ever directed towards achievement of a common goal in the long history of our Golden State.

In the direct manner typical to their sex, the women are not deviating from their avowed purpose to engage in discussions of causes of smog or the ways in which it might be reduced.

They are simply demanding of the powers that be (men) that smog be eliminated.

As a short cut to quick results, S.O.S. is starting at the top in its first official acts by calling upon the Mayor of Los Angeles, and asking the Governor of California to call a special session of the legislature to employ their full power in ending the nuisance now plaguing most metropolitan areas.

In short, effective notice has been given to the men who man the machines . . . both of politics and industry . . . that the time has arrived to end dilly-dallying over "how and when" smog can be controlled, and start DOING something definite to put a stop to it NOW!

As difficult as the order may seem to mere man, the fact that the fairer sex includes more than 50 per cent of the voting power, and controls 80 per cent of the spending power, woe betide the hapless politician or industrialist who fails to show complete cooperation.

Now that the women of California have united in exercising their powerful influence for good against the existence of the smog evil, let all of us hope that effective action and noticeable lessening of the stifling scourge that besets populous areas will not be long in forthcoming.

Economic Strike Laws

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Two economic laws appear to have operated throughout the long steel strike, both enunciated by very observant foreigners to the American scene.

Alexis de Tocqueville: "It may be asserted that a slow and gradual rise of wages is one of the general laws of democratic communities. In proportion as social conditions become more equal, wages rise; and as wages are higher, social conditions become more equal."

KARL MARX: "Capitalist production begets, its own negation." In brief, rising wages are not enough. The workers, by investing their labor in an industry, eventually come to own the industry.

These two laws, the democratic and the communist laws, are in lasting conflict, not only in the steel industry but throughout the economy. De Tocqueville, writing between the American Revolution and the Civil War, saw that the workers would inevitably improve their economic and social condition in the United States.

NO TRUER prophet ever spoke. During Woodrow Wilson's Administration a special study of the steel industry showed many workers on a 7-day week, working as long as 72 hours. They earned around 18 cents an hour, with no premium for Sundays and holidays. There were pay-check deductions for delicacies like ice water. The company owned most of the dwellings, where conditions were bad for all and worse for Negroes, Italians, Hungarians and Russians. But wretched as these conditions were, they were better than anywhere else in the world. It was a rare steel worker who would stay in a foreign country if he could possibly find his way to America. This was because of the de Tocqueville Law which correctly predicted the "slow and gradual rise of wages."

BY THE TIME the Eisenhower Administration came into being steel-workers had a minimum basic wage of $2 an hour, geared to a dizzying set of increases for extra hours, years of service, contractual pensions and much else. All this came to pass because of the democratic climate. Unionism was bound to flourish and collective bargaining between equals was a phase of democracy.

Unfortunately, the Marx Law also found some leeway. The older union leaders, as early as Gompers and as recent as Murray, stressed the bread-and-butter aspects of social improvement, under the capitalistic climate.

PHILIP MURRAY saw beyond the material blessings to the esthetic and luxurious ones which make life so much more worthwhile — "music in the home, pictures on the wall, carpets on the floor," he told a CIO convention in 1946. Such wonders would come about through the increase of man-hour yield, called productivity. But there was never any serious notion among respectable Labor leaders of seizing ownership from the stockholders.

But the Marx Law does contemplate this seizure. Writing around the time of our Civil War, Marx felt that workers were actually buying the steel and other industries on the installment plan. He predicted eventual ownership of everything by the proletariat or by the proletarian State. And it is possible to see in some of Labor's recent demands that a transition is in the making. From increased wages and improved working conditions Labor leaders are moving toward something like ownership or industrial rulership, which comes to the same thing.

THIS IS A pitfall which has not been clearly marked with red lanterns, as it should be. It is possible to pass almost unknowingly from democracy to communism, from de Tocqueville to Marx. Labor unions have used the strike weapon very effectively in this country. But this weapon is a negative force. It is a work stoppage, the opposite of productivity. Industrial management, on the other hand, has been skillful and inventive in the positive direction.

Everything depends on which of these economic laws remains dominant. Improvement is certain under the democratic pressures. But something quite different happens when Marxian ideas begin to take over men's minds. —Holmes Alexander

Campaign Conveyance

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

A commercial to me That's utterly utter Is the one where the guy Doodles things on the butter.

All I know is that I don't want to get a letter that's smeared with butter.

Even if my writing friend wants to demonstrate that his pen doesn't skip.

OF COURSE, if he wants to send me a big check, I don't care what it's smeared with as long as it is negotiable.

But in ordinary correspondence such as "Dear Sir, your account is seven weeks in arrears" or "We are raising a fund for buck-toothed Ubangies and have put you down for a small donation" — I wouldn't like to have them smeared with butter or any substitute thereof.

CAN YOU IMAGINE a letter, which has been smeared with butter, lying around in the post office for a few days?

Pretty rancid, I'd say. Then the commercial says that if the pen will write over butter it will write over grease stains or finger prints.

Who's he getting letters from, anyway?

OUTSIDE OF THAT, I'm grateful to the firm which fell for this commercial for helping put on the World Series games, the Friday fights, Rose Bowl and other big events.

But I wish they'd leave the butter in the refrigerator until the toast is burned.

So that ends this year's Series.

I SEE WHERE on some of our highways they are adopting the line striping system originated, I believe, in Arizona.

That is, in addition to the middle line there is a line painted along the edge of the road.

Engineers say this is a big help. Drivers keep their right wheels along the outside white line instead of their left wheels against the inside line.

Thus cutting down the chances of sideswiping.

MUST FIND OUT what happened to that proposal to raise the limit on buildings in Palm Springs. The old ordinance, I think, puts the damper on any building which extends more than 30 feet up. In Palm Springs that is only 400 feet above sea level.

With just so much land in Palm Springs and with the demand so great, there's no place to go but up.

So who's going to build the first skyscraper with elevators taking you to the Top of the Palms?

STAN DELAPLANE:

Behind Picture Tube

A clear, neon-lighted night in the City of Angels. (Have you heard the record, "Angelstown," yet?)

The day has been spent in artistic endeavor.

"As we see you," said the Hollywood TV man seeing me through rose-colored glasses. "As we see you, you are a man who smokes a reflective pipe."

"Why do you see me that way, stranger?"

"IT IS THE MARK of the traveled man. Besides, if you are going to appear on television, the pipe will give you something to do with your hands."

"I could put them in my pockets, TV man. Or I could cut them off. That would make an interesting sequence — I could walk on and take an ax and cut my hands off."

"What would you do on the second show?" said the TV man. "No, we definitely see you as a pipe-smoker."

WE ARE EXPLORING the world of TV, the world of "Dragnet." ("All we want is the glue, man.")

As I understand this, I would come on the TV set — (smoking a pipe, naturally). I would not really smoke it naturally. I would smoke it unnaturally. But anyway, I would come on.

I would say: "Good evening, ladies and gentlemen of the TV world." Or, "Hello, out there in TV land." Then I would say we have something very interesting to tell you this evening.

AT THIS POINT — I would go off the screen and a man in a white coat would come on.

"How is your liver?" he says gloomily. What he means is your liver is not so good. "Do you realize that your liver is very important to YOU?"

After this, I come on again. And all the audience "out there" thinks I am a horrible example of a liver case.

That is what it looks like to me.

WELL, IT IS flattering to be asked to promote liver remedies. And the TV people and I were both satisfied with the interview.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Jimmy Boyd a Beatnik

Hollywood — Never thought I'd see the day when the freckle-faced, snaggle-toothed Jimmy Boyd of "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" fame would become a Beatnik but that he has.

To such a degree, on-screen and off, that MGM won't have to pay for Boyd's Beat wardrobe in "Platinum High School" — he ripped his own pants.

The Beats have really taken over Fox no sooner got Tuesday Weld off of HER Beatnik kick, for just a day of posing for some fashion layouts, than producer Jerry Wald announced he'll star her in "Beatnik Blast," same studio . . . Call 'em Beatniks, call 'em Nudniks, call 'em anything you want — there's nothing new under the sun. John Milton wrote about them 'way back in 1867 — only he called the 15th Century slobs "the Sons of Belial." Down with insolence and wine.

SPEAKING OF trends, Allied Artists is stirring up a publicity storm about Fred Wilcox's next picture at the studio, "I Passed for White," from the book by Mary Hastings Bradley. Why all the fuss? Thirty years ago Nella Larsen wrote a thunderous book on the same subject called "Passing" and it caused hardly a ripple.

Harold Lloyd, one of our greatest silent screen stars tells me he could be tempted back to his old acting career by just one part — the starring role in a story owned by Columbia Pictures, "The Flying Yorkshireman."

Purred at the bar in the Beverly Hills Hotel's Persian Room: "I never knew the REALLY elegant side of Beverly Hills until I sent my dirty cat out to be glazed."

ROUBEN MAMOULIAN and I engaged in a mild 'cross-the-table argument at a dinner party at Bob Stack's home about the greatest American musical shows. He said it's a tossup between "Oklahoma!" and "Kiss Me, Kate." I held out for "South Pacific" or "Pal Joey." The attractive young lady on Rouben's right got into the fray too, hammer-&-tongs, citing not only the music, lyrics and book but the place of her candidate in the history of the theatre to prove she was right.

We finally gave in, on the basis that Jerome Kern's "Show Boat," the young lady's choice, was the pace that all ensuing American musicals have followed. After dinner I asked Stack to identify my attractive, erudite adversary. Said he, "It's Mrs. Jack Cummings — you know, Jerome Kern's daughter Betty!"

BUSTER KEATING is getting out the bullwhips to play the part of the lion-tamer in Sam Goldwyn Jr.'s "Huckleberry Finn." And if you think I've had a spate of casting scoops on "Huck" lately it's true — I've got a pipeline into Juniors' office that won't stop!

Bob (Hawaiian Eye) Conrad came up to my office with another "scoop" — about the new theatre architect, just in town from Arizona, who has a brand new gimmick: he designs movie theatres with people already in them!

CHANNEL CHATTER — KPFX a new station, got off to a bad start in L.A. It was flooded with phone calls, telegrams and letters protesting one of its first programs, a two-hour interview spotlighting hate-monger Gerald L. K. Smith.

Dinah Shore's duel with Zsa Zsa Gabor ended like the late Constance Collier's long-ago toe-to-toe free-for-all with Ruth Gordon in "Serena Blandish." In other words, Dinah, like Constance, was the Winnah — and Zsa Zsa had to wear the wardrobe provided for her by the Chevy people instead of upstaging Dinah with her own Paris imports.

Actor to his girl friend: "Love you? Don't EVER ask me to say it, doll — you know I can't stand four-letter words!"

MGM LOST SUSAN Hayward when she decided "Cimarron" wasn't for her. Now the studio has asked Polly Bergen's network bosses to send them some of Polly's telefilm footage. She won't have to take a screentest; if they like the telefilm, Polly will play one of the leads in the Glenn Ford remake of the Richard Dix silent . . . Maria Schell drew another lucky-lucky inside straight: she's set for a starring spot in "Cimarron."

Ann Southern gifted her guest star of last Saturday (Oct. 3), Lucille Ball, with a diamond-clustered ring topped by one of those uneven (but very expensive) freshwater pearls. Deal Arnaz ogled his better-half's new bauble and babbled, "Just have it eapped, Lucy, and nobody'll know the difference!"

IT'S GLAD FABIAN and Pat Boone were able to squeeze in a few songs on Pat's October 1st Chevy show, between all those plugs for Fabian's movie, "Hound Dog Man." Pat's movie, "Journey to the Center of the Earth," and the 1960 Chevy.

Columbia Pictures found some old recordings of the late Almee Semple McPherson exhorting her Angelus Temple congregations to load the collection plates with "soft, folding money — none of that hard, noisy stuff!"

THEY THOUGHT IT might be a good idea for Jean Simmons, currently playing an Almee-type evangelist in "Elmer Gantry," to listen to them. But director Dick Brooks ruled otherwise because he wants Jean to "sound like herself, not Almee." He is allowing her, however, to take some of her cues from the Rev. Oral Roberts's TV appearances.

Frank Tashlin, producing and directing Jerry Lewis's "Cinderella" for Paramount, rented a Bel Air Hotel suite for all of last weekend for himself and his star, just to keep Jerry from watching the World Series on TV and concentrate on some last-minute script changes before they start shooting. Tashlin to room clerk: "Tell Mr. Lewis you're fresh out of TV sets, tell him you never HEARD of the World Series — and nail a NEON Do Not Disturb sign on our door!"

Twenty-seven students from Palm Springs are now attending Banning Union High School.

The office of Kocher and Lynch was moved this week to a location just south of its former location in Palm Springs Estates subdivision.

Hotel Banning dining room, which was closed during the hot weather, will reopen Sunday noon with a turkey dinner.

Letters to the Editor

Editor
The Desert Sun
Nikita Khrushchev, during his short but energetic trip to the United States, was given an excellent opportunity to inspect our political and economic leaders for signs of flexibility and flaccidity. If the Soviet "strategist" detoured any in his armor, he will certainly exploit them to the fullest extent.

Recent reconnaissance of the free world will be disclosed by future events. The objectives of the dynamic dictator include the following:

1. Removal of current restrictions on U. S. trade with the U. S. S. R.
2. Separate peace treaties with East and West Germany.
3. Abandonment of West Berlin by the Allies.
4. Recognition of Red China by the United Nations.

If the Communists secure any of these objectives as the result of future appeasements, Khrushchev will receive personal credit for the breakthrough. The advance of Communism toward its avowed goal of world domination will gain momentum. The free world will suffer another setback in its struggle for survival.

Respectfully yours,
Raymond G. McDonough

LYLE C. WILSON:

Chi Sox Fans Scarce in L.A.

BEVERLY HILLS — When I look back on the World Series I wonder whether it was me or the baseball fans who needed a psychiatrist. During the height of the hubbub I visited the bravest — and maybe the only — White Sox fan on the gold coast of movie-town. He trotted into the living room of his two-acre estate in Bel-Air balancing two plates of chicken paprika which he'd cooked himself.

"It's fantastic," producer Joe Pasternak said, pausing to look at the color TV set on which we were watching the game, "the amount of hell the world series has raised with the movie studios."

"I had Doris Day in a love scene with Dave Niven," continued the peppery little Hungarian, once a dishwasher at Silver's delicatessen in N.Y.

"Right in the middle of the kissing, Doris says 'Who's on first' then she says, 'Charlie Neal should punt.'"

Joe, who never learned baseball very well, asked, "Or is it bunt?" He poured some beer and explained that in Hungary they didn't know from baseball. "The main sport there," he laughed, "was love. You've heard of Zsa Zsa Gabor?" Anyway, Joe said, out at N-C-M studios, they were doing a scene in "Please Don't Eat the Daisies," on sets made up to resemble Macy's and Sardi's in N.Y.

"There was a little noise that we couldn't locate. It was an extra who had brought a little transistor radio right into the scene to listen to the ball game. A guy that sells coffee passed right out when the White Sox won a game. I'm for Chicago just to be different — just to be Hungarian."

The rest of the movie mob was for "The Brooklyn." Groucho Marx rooted at home: "I couldn't go to the game on Sunday — I'm a Baptist," he said. Composer Harry Ruby wore his Dodger cap. Agent Lou Irwin, usually eloquent about his clients, the Ritz Brothers and Peter Lind Hayes, said "I had to dig up 45 tickets."

Columnist Sidney Skolsky was so nervous about getting seats for his daughter Steffi that he took three extra mitotons.

Jerry Wald had a stranglehold on Bob Goldstein in the Beverly Hills lobby. I could guess why. Bob, head of European production for 20th Century-Fox, is a brother of Spud Goldstein, traveling secretary of the Cleveland Indians.

Naturally Bill Vecek was a big personality here.

We went to the Slate Brothers' saloon when we heard that Don Rickles, the razzmaster, was going to rib Vecek.

Vecek wasn't there. We wondered whom Rickles would rib. Maybe composer Julie Styne, who was there fresh from an hour-and-a-half phone call with Sandra Church, who does that strip in "Gypsy."

Suddenly we discovered whom Rickles was going to rib. U.S.

"He keeps on writing about his son Sluggie. How old is Sluggie, now, Earl? About 41?" Rickles said.

Which made us brave, so we asked Pasternak why he is really for the White Sox. "I got a picture opening in Chicago soon," Joe confessed. "I want to be popular there."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y.: Guest star Ingemar Johansson was missing when Dinah Shore's TV'er began Sunday, but he was found just in time — asleep in his dressing room.

Larry Blyden's work on "What Makes Sammy Run?" won him two appearances on the Ed Sullivan show, at $5,000 per.

Eva Gabor's wedding gift to Dick Brown was a Rolls Royce. (The ceremony was held up four hours—the minister arrived late).

Rita Hayworth rejected Aly Khan's request to have dinner. Yamin educated abroad — at least, not till she's 18.

Eddie Fisher and Liz visited a synagogue in Las Vegas during the Jewish holidays.

Gene Courtney, back from a three-month singing tour of Europe, will make TV appearances.

Forrest Tucker's medics feared he'd suffered a heart attack, but 'twas merely indigestion.

Eli Wallach was offered the Sancho Panza role in David Susskind's "Don Quixote" TV'er.

The police now say Little Augie's killing was "a $50,000 rub-out, same as Anastasia's."

Dinah Shore introduced husband George Montgomery to her N.Y. TV audience and cracked: "It's the first time he's seen New York without his horse."

Fidel Castro reportedly loaned money to some Havana hotels to keep 'em in business.

Joan Crawford tells friends New York's her home and she'll never live in L.A. again.

Polly Bergen's opening a dress shop in Knoxville, Tenn., may endorse a line of "Polly Bergen gowns."

Tina Louise, despite the publicity about her big Italian movie deal, still hasn't gotten any dough from the producer to come over there.

Bermuda Dunes Starts Golf Buffets

"AFTER YOU." This polite invitation from Singer Allan Jones, above, went to his wife, Mary, center and Mary Hurrell, their hostess at Bermuda Dunes Country Club's opening Sundown Buffet at its newly enlarged "Top o' the Dune" clubhouse.

Bermuda Dunes' greatly expanded clubhouse was the scene of a gala opening Friday evening. Ernie Dunlevie and Ray Ryan (Ray is still in Kenya, Africa) raised the curtain on what appears to be a banner social and golf tournament season for the picturesque golf club and residential community near Palm Springs.

More than 250 members and their guests hailed the enhanced beauty and striking spaciousness of the $500,000 clubhouse. Many of the celebrants found the new cocktail lounge arrangement, with its picture windows looking over vast expanses of fairway and mountain and desert vistas, a powerful magnet.

They also found the sumptuous buffet, prepared by Chef David Wait, hard to resist.

The party, which was enlivened by the dance music furnished by the Hugh Givens Trio, served as a welcome home occasion for Ed Vines, Bermuda Dunes' famed golf pro. His wife, Nancy, arrived from Chicago just in time for the opening. Vines has a regular summer assignment as pro at Northmoor Country Club in Highland Park, Ill.

Also given a warm welcome back was William F. Bell, Jr., the nationally known golf course architect who designed and built Bermuda Dunes' unique 18-hole championship golf course.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones, Mary Hurrell, Roy Randolph and Lee De Stefano, Harold Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vines, Judy Howard, Milt Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Manasse, Mr. and Mrs. Trav Rogers, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Lee N. Utz, Dorothy Mature, Mr. and Mrs. William Gargan, Tom Kettering and Marv Reimer of the Mirror-News, Mrs. Adelaide Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. William Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Stiff, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Staley and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brockman.

State Group Launches Program

Under the leadership of State legislative chairman, Mrs. Jeanne Chisholm of Van Nuys, and State legislative advocate Mrs. Ruth Church Gupta of San Francisco, the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs is conducting two Legislative Training sessions.

One was on Saturday and the second will be next Saturday. The sessions will be held for the purpose of studying certain California laws under which men and women receive different treatment, the difference based exclusively on the difference in sex. Both sessions will be attended by the State Federation president, Mrs. Elizabeth Evans Chapman of Stockton.

Mrs. Mary Fowler of Palm Springs attended Saturday's session at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena, which was attended by legislative chairmen representing six Districts of the Federation located in the southern section of the state.

The session on October 10 will be held in Sacramento at El Mirador Hotel and will be attended by legislative chairmen from the northern Districts of the State Federation.

Agenda includes study of California laws affecting divorce, support, labor laws and also that law which exempts husbands from paying inheritance tax on community property inherited from his wife, while at the same time it requires the widow to pay inheritance tax on community property inherited from the husband.

The sessions are the beginning of an intensive vigorous, action program in the legislative area of the California Federation of B&PW Clubs.

Grandparents Host Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mandinich's seven-year-old son Gary whose birthday was Saturday, was the honored guest at a birthday dinner party at Chi Chi Sunday given by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mandinich. In the party to help Gary celebrate and blow out the candles on his birthday cake was his four-year-old brother Gregg.

Church Women Hold Meeting

Mrs. Thomas R. Campbell, president of the Palm Desert Community Church Women's Association, was hostess for the first board meeting luncheon of the coming year at her home on Mirage Road, Rancho Mirage, on Tuesday.

Plans were formulated for the year ahead, with board meetings scheduled for the first Tuesday of each month, Circle meetings the second Tuesday, Association meetings the third Tuesday, and the Fellowship dinners will be held on the fourth Tuesday throughout the season.

Clare Williams Heading for California on Tour to Talk with GOP Women

Five million more American women voters than men!

That's the story Mrs. Clare B. Williams, assistant to the chairman of the Republican National Committee in charge of women's activities, will tell California's women when she arrives next Thursday, October 15 on a week's tour of the state from Oregon to Mexico.

Accompanied by Republican women leaders headed by Mrs. Marjorie H. E. Benedict, National Committeewoman, and Mrs. R. G. Kenyon, president of the California Federation of Republican Women, Mrs. Williams will start from San Francisco and San Jose on October 15, traveling north to Concord, Santa Rosa, and Ukiah on October 16.

On Saturday, October 17 she will speak at Eureka, returning to Berkeley on Sunday afternoon for a tea, following which she will fly southward for two days in Los Angeles. On Monday morning, October 19 she will hold a press conference at Los Angeles' Statler-Hilton Hotel with a noon luncheon scheduled in the Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel with Mrs. Margaret Martin Brock as hostess.

Highlight of Mrs. Williams' tour will come Tuesday, October 20 when she gives the keynote address at the annual convention of the Southern California Division of the California Federation of Republican Women at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena with Mrs. Don Petty of Saticoy, presiding. Mrs. Williams will speak at luncheon.

Delegates from Southern California's 200 Republican women's clubs will gather at 10 a.m., according to Mrs. Logan Goodknight of Long Beach, general convention chairman. Morning speaker will be former Congresswoman Cecil Harden who will discuss "The Postoffice Story."

In charge of registration for convention delegates will be Mrs. Langdon Tannehill, 1631 Wood Glen Lane in Altadena. In charge of luncheon reservations is Mrs. Manuel Coidarrens, 1424 North Delta Street in South San Gabriel, telephone AT 9-5676. The luncheon is open to all registered Republican women.

The nominating committee report for 1959-61 will be read by Mrs. Gustave Jahn of Redlands, chairman. Her report includes Mrs. Logan Goodknight of Long Beach, president; Everett Grubb of Elsinore, vice president; Douglas Yarborough, of Fullerton, vice president; Ruth Jackson of San Diego, vice president; Elizabeth Kinsey of Los Angeles, treasurer; and Elaine Kower of San Bernardino, secretary.

Following the convention Mrs. Williams will speak Tuesday night, October 20 in San Diego, Wednesday in El Centro, Thursday in Modesto, and Stockton and return to Washington Friday.

El Mirador Opening Doors Today

Today is opening day for fabulous El Mirador, which brought fame to Palm Springs as far back as 1928 when it welcomed the first of the many internationally known guests who have made it one of the best known hotels in this country.

According to general manager Richard Vander Veer all facilities of the hotel, including the dining room and the popular Kiva Room, will be in operation on Thursday. Only exception to this is the South Pacific Room, which will have a special opening later in the season.

Gerhard Knaak, who needs no introduction as one of the finest of chefs, has returned to head the hotel's dining rooms. As always the five private dining rooms of the hotel are available for private parties both large and small.

Those special fun occasions, Sunday Brunch, the Bavarian Beer Festivals and the steak rides will get underway a little later in the season.

Vander Veer remained here during July to supervise renovation of a number of the 200 rooms and suites.

The grounds of El Mirador cover 21 acres and are equipped for recreation with two tennis courts, an Olympic swimming pool, which is operated by diving and swimming champion Bill Lewin. It boasts five diving boards as well as the first underwater photo room believed to have been built in this country. There is also a 9-hole putting green, shuffleboard and croquet courts.

El Mirador went to war in the days of World War II when it served as Torney General Hospital, a 1500 bed recuperative center for the Army.

In 1952 it was reopened again as El Mirador Hotel by its owners National Hotel Enterprises. No less than five million dollars had been put into the purchase and reconstruction of the hotel to make it one of the finest of resort hotels in the nation.

Gethin D. Williams, who returns as resident manager of El Mirador, is well known in Southern California, having spent two years as manager of Arrowhead Hot Springs Hotel, and six years as convention manager of the Hotel Del Coronado at Coronado Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have established their home for the season at 853 South Riverside Drive, while general manager Richard Vander Veer and Mrs. Vander Veer are living at 1061 Olive Way with their two young people "Ricky" and Janice.

Ben Burnett, reservation manager is back again at his desk. A new addition to the staff is Allan Parker, assistant manager. Parker was formerly with the Santa Barbara Biltmore.

Musically the popular Billy Allen orchestra has returned as has popular strolling troubador Tex Kidwell. Both will be heard night ly in the dining and Kiva Rooms. Situated within El Mirador are a number of popular shops which are again open to serve both hotel guests and Villagers and visitors. These shops include Lillian Agar's famed dress shop in the lobby, Waltah Clarke's poolside Hawaiian Shop, the novelty shop, the Terrace Shop which is operated by Maxine Diccio, and Lena Bryan's Beauty Shop.

After a summer in Europe, Conrad Hug, who has photographed many of the visitors to this resort, has also returned.

An addition to the staff this year is Mrs. Billie Mueller, executive housekeeper. Mrs. Mueller is no stranger to Palm Springs as she held a similar post at the Desert Inn for many years.

Head bartender Jimmy Shipp, who has been with the hotel for a number of years is another of the returned staff members.

National Hotel Enterprises which owns El Mirador, has as its president popular Edwin C. Houghton who, with Mrs. Houghton, spends a portion of each winter at the resort hotel.

'Better Living' Themes Talks

Trends that will affect merchandizing, manufacturing, advertising, and every phase of industry connected even remotely with home making, were established Monday when the third Annual Congress of Better Living convened with 143 groups in session in different sections of the United States.

Mrs. Vahan Alchian, who represented Palm Springs, attended the meeting held at Briargate Lodge in Banning with nine other delegates who were from Redlands, Beaumont and Banning.

Ida S. Waters, representing the sponsoring McCall's Magazine, acted as moderator for the forum.

It turned out to be a well-assorted panel of young mothers, young matrons, and a young grandmother, assembling opinions from different age groups, different social stations and different income groups.

First and foremost topic under discussion concerned Food, both in the daily menu for the family and for serving guests. Mrs. Alchian said it was interesting to find that of the 10 women, 7 or 8 reported that they found their recipes and new ideas for cookery from the pages of newspapers. One said she went to the G. & S. Company cooking schools, and a little bride said she "consulted mother."

Every kind of party was covered, the tea, the shower, the buffet and barbecue, the formal dinner and even children's parties. The moderator wanted to know how often each entertained and in what fashion and asked for representative menus (seasonal), indicating that the information gathered from across the country will be channeled to many sources, economic as well as in the pages of the magazine, and will help to determine manufacturing trends.

The food discussion also touched on the matter of freezers, and small cars as a secondary family car. Most of the women seemed to prefer a second hand car in a larger size, because of the safety factor.

From these October round table meetings, 100 women will be chosen to go as delegates to the traditional three-day Congress for Better Living in Washington, D.C.

Parents and Teachers Confer at C.C.P.T.A.'s Special Meet

Cathedral City P.T.A.'s special meeting and Parent and Teacher conferences, was well attended by members and guests. After the parents discussed their child's progress with respective teachers, the program was presented in the school cafeteria, with P.T.A. president George Rodman presiding. Dr. Roy McCall, president of College of the Desert and Berton Lamb, member of the board of the Palm Springs Unified School District, spoke on behalf of the approaching Bond Election.

Honor was given to Mrs. Clarence McQuown who resigned at the end of the school term after eight years of service as secretary of Cathedral City School followed by introduction of teachers.

The attendance derby was won by Miss Walker's third grade room, boasting the most parents present. Coffee, tea and cake were served by members of the Junior Woman's Club of Cathedral City and the attractive decoration in the fall theme was arranged by Mrs. Harry Estel and Mrs. Howard Deason. P.T.A. board members supporting their president at the initial meeting of the new year were vice presidents Mike Arslanich (teacher) and Mrs. Thomas Killfole; recording secretary Mrs. Albert H. Nehl; corresponding secretary Mrs. Howard Deason; treasurer Mrs. Harry Estel; auditor Robert Hollister; and historian Mrs. Howard Comras.

Padua Hills Begins Its 28th Year

CLAREMONT — The Mexican Players opened their 28th consecutive season at Padua Hills Theatre last week with "Fiestas Mexicanas."

The musical production draws its songs, dances, folk music and skits from three Mexican provinces, Jalisco, Tehuantepec and Durango.

Eligio Herrera, stage director at Padua Hills, was born in Durango. Thus the presentation of that portion of the production is based on reminiscences from Herrera's boyhood.

Featured in "Fiestas Mexicanas" are dancer Casilda Amador, singer Manuel Gonzales, Rogelio Alfaro, Manuel Vera, Maria Abundiz, and Nelia Franco. Blas Romero Tellez will play a salterio solo.

"Fiestas Mexicanas" will run through November 14, to be followed by "Las Posadas," story of Christmas in Old Mexico. Five other productions will be staged during the balance of the continuous 50-week season.

The Mexican Players also entertain daily except Mondays in the dining room of non-profit Padua Institute. All facilities at Padua Hills reopen today following conclusion of the annual two weeks vacation.

Reservations for Padua Hills Theatre and dining room may be made by calling National 6-1208.

FRENCH TOWNSHIP SUES TO PROTECT ROQUEFORT CHEESE

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The community of Roquefort, France, famous for its cheese of the same name, filed a suit in U.S. District Court here Tuesday charging that Trader Vic's restaurant serves a dressing made with bleu cheese and advertises it as Roquefort.

The complaint said the restaurant was infringing on the Roquefort copyright and should stop using the name unless it uses genuine Roquefort.

The suit, filed by Roquefort and other interested parties, asked that Trader Vic's account for all profits gained from allegedly using the Roquefort name, and pay appropriate damages.

Dog Licenses Extend to October 1960

Riverside County dog owners were told today that newly issued licenses for their canine pets will be good until Oct. 1, 1960, instead of August 1, 1960.

County Administrative Officer Robert T. Anderson said the change was recommended following questions raised at the County Board of Supervisors meeting this week.

ANDERSON EXPLAINED that the new county licensing ordinance was not adopted when originally planned and the effective date was not changed. The effective ordinance date remained July 1, 1959, he said.

"Licenses were issued commencing in September and, therefore, it seems only reasonable that the ordinance should be amended to allow the first license to be good until Oct. 1, 1960," Anderson said.

It was the original intent of the ordinance, he noted, that the original fee be charged to cover a one-year period.

THE CHANGE, which means that the licenses will be good from the date of issuance in September until Oct. 1, instead of Sept. 1, will be on the board agenda for Oct. 13 as a recommendation of the county counsel and administrative officer.

Meanwhile, Anderson said, the health department has been instructed to notify all applicants for licenses that the first year's licenses will be valid until Oct. 1, 1960.

Eddie Miller In Reno Hospital

By JEAN PATANE

As a result of an accident Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Miller will be unable to return to their Vista Drive home for another month or two. On July 15 Eddie fell 20 feet from a ladder when a cable broke, and suffered back and internal injuries.

A local electrician, Mr. Miller and his wife spend the summers at Lake Tahoe where he was working at the time. Now out of the hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at the Old Orchard Trailer Park in Reno, Nev., until he is given a medical release.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel have returned to Cathedral City after a five month trailer tour of the country. Leaving the desert early in May they drove the southern route through Arizona, Texas and on to Louisiana, stopping to visit in New Orleans. Then to Talahassee and down the gulf coast of Florida.

They enjoyed a week at the home of his brother, Dr. Kenneth Daniel and family at Marathon on the Florida Keys. They visited in Key West and spent a few days in Miami before heading for South Carolina, where they spent a few days in Charleston visiting the various places of interest.

Heading northwest, they traveled through North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky and Illinois en route to his home town of Osceola, Iowa, to visit with his uncle, Jerry Daniel, and friends. Their next point of call was in Madison, S.D., at the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Lemppke. From there they went on to Yellowstone National Park for a week, fortunately just ahead of the earthquake.

They stopped in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, before going on to Washington where they spent several weeks camping, touring the Olympic Peninsula, fishing and clamming. They fished for salmon off Fox Island where they were weekend houseguests of desert winter visitors Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stelling. Being English, Mrs. Daniel particularly enjoyed the week they spent in Victoria, B.C., Canada.

In Portland, Ore., they were guests for a week at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paul. They spent a month in Costa Mesa and Newport and when they returned to Cathedral City they had traveled almost 11,000 miles through 32 states. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel have taken a house on C Street while adding the finishing touches to the home they are building on Bankside Drive in Sunair.

During the summer months Mrs. Thomas Killfole and children, Allen, Susan and Tommy, were at the summer place they are completing near Meeks Bay, Lake Tahoe. They left the desert at the close of school and Mr. Killfole joined them for six weeks, returning to the desert after Labor Day. Mrs. Killfole and the children returned for the opening of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gordon returned last week from Lake Tahoe where they spent the five summer months. The boys, Robert and David, flew back in time to start school.

Miss Elizabeth Hirst, who made her home at Desert Lodge for the past year and a half, left Friday by train for her former home in Philadelphia, Pa.

During the summer Mrs. Ted Culver and children, Kay and Kathleen, spent a month visiting relatives in Oklahoma and Kansas. Mr. Culver is pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church of Cathedral City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russell arrived Saturday from their home in Santa Monica to spend a month at Desert View Motel. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Azhaderian of Hollywood are here this week. They have been coming to Desert View Motel for the past 13 years. Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Edson from San Diego and Ed Essington and Dan McLaughlin from Las Vegas.

After spending the summer months at their ranch home at Pinon Pines, Bud and Iva Moon have returned to Cathedral City to open their "Moon Manor" Apartments for the thirteenth season. Moon is a well known building contractor with offices in Palm Desert.

Little Julie Ann, the newest member of the Harold Tuchfarber family, recently celebrated her first birthday (one month). She was born Sept. 3 at Desert

Hospital and weighed five pounds, five ounces. Her maternal grandmother, Mrs. R. B. Koontz of Healdon, Okla., was visiting with the family for three weeks after the baby was born. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tuchfarber of Edgemont, Calif. Julie Ann has a big brother, Mel, and two sisters, Ruth and Peggy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stenson, new residents of Cathedral City and former members of the Magnolia Avenue Church in Riverside, presented their church letter to the First Southern Baptist Church on Cathedral Canyon Drive last Sunday.

Capt. and Mrs. James R. Thill of the Twentynine Palms Marine Base, who made their home in Cathedral City last year, were here Sunday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Paulsen. Mrs. Thill (Doris) stayed on for a few days with the Paulsens and returned Wednesday to her home and family.

Following the summer spent in Monterey, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly are back and have opened "Kelley Cottages" for the fourteenth season. Mrs. Kelly's friends since school days, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown were here for 10 days from their home in Newfane, N.Y. It was the Browns' first visit to California and the Kellys showed them the many places of interest in the desert area and on the coast.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Janulus, (Anthony's Refrigeration) for a patio barbecue dinner party Sunday were Chuck and Ann Buchanan of Palm Springs.

Mrs. May Hanley and her sister, Mrs. McClure from Pasadena, spent the weekend at the Westview Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colgalier were in Los Angeles Sunday and Monday enjoying the World Series games at the Coliseum. Her mother, Mrs. Mabel Montanye of Indio is visiting with them this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen McNeil have returned to their home on G Street after a late summer vacation visiting with friends Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McJunkin in Tulare and with Mrs. McNeil's brother and sister-in-law at their home in Stockton.

Mrs. Virginia C. Smith, who has been a desert resident for 22 years, returned to her home on E Street for another winter season. Mrs. Smith was the original owner of the Palm Springs Book Shop and is well known in the area.

She left in the early summer to visit with family and friends in her home town of McMinnville, Tenn. She went on to Georgia to visit a sister and attend two family weddings. En route to San Francisco where she lived for two and a half months, she stopped in colorful New Orleans, La., for a few days of sightseeing. Before returning to the desert she visited in Los Angeles and with another sister and family in Santa Monica.

Governor Asks Reapportionment

PLEASANTON (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said Tuesday night that he proposes to remove the "unfair handicap" of congressional districts reapportioned to the advantage of Republicans after the 1960 census.

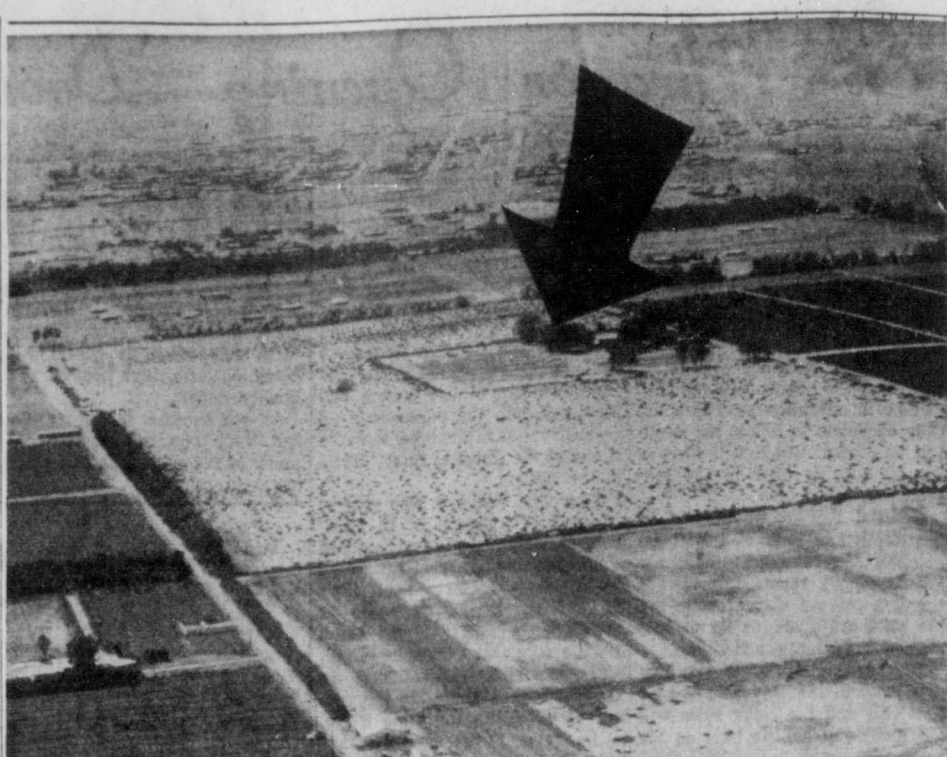

Brown charged that the districts were carved into "grotesque shapes" to make them "safe for Republicans."

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with a man for eleven years. He was married when I met him but his wife was sick. He asked me to move into his house and be his housekeeper and take care of his wife and four children. I did. All this time we were sweethearts. He said he'd marry me in time. His wife passed away two years ago. Since then, he hasn't mentioned one word about marrying me, but he says he loves me. Do you call that love?

HOUSEKEEPER
DEAR HOUSEKEEPER: It's LOVE all right! He LOVES your company, but he LOVES his freedom. He LOVES your housekeeping, but he would LOVE to keep things exactly as they are. If you want a husband, I suggest you move your loving self out of his house and find a nice single man who is satisfied to love his own wife.

DEAR ABBY: I know that parents are supposed to treat all their children alike, but we can't help favoring our middle child. Our oldest (a girl, 16) is selfish and mule-headed and we can't do a thing with her. The baby (a boy, 8) won't let us kiss him or touch him. He lies and is a real little trouble-maker.

But the middle child is the kind all parents dream of having. He is truthful, loving and helpful. Everyone notices that he is our favorite. We know it isn't right, but how can we change the situation?

PRAYING FOR HELP
DEAR PRAYING: Since all children do not behave the same way, they don't deserve the same treatment. Treat each child as an individual. When a child is mule-headed, deceitful and generally disagreeable, there is usually a reason for it. Professional help (starting with your family physician) could unearth those reasons and possibly remove them.

DEAR ABBY: After being married to this woman for 17 years I guess maybe I don't have too much to complain about. But here is my problem. She never uses our out-sized living room except for showers and a visit from our minister. All the other company she squeezes into our kitchen or den. I told her I didn't know what we needed this nice house for if she was only going to use half of it. It makes me so mad when she crowds everybody into the smallest rooms in the house.

CRAMPED
DEAR CRAMPED: Don't ask me why, but most people enjoy crowding into a small den or kitchen. If they enjoy the coziness—relax and accept it.

DEAR ABBY: You often refer to a female woman with loose morals as a "dog." This, in my opinion, is an insult to any dog, Mongrel or pedigreed.

In a female dog, it is twice a year, and once mated she will refuse all other males. Show me a woman with such standards and I will marry her.

Through Simplification

Speedier Justice Sought by Courts

Courts and lawyers keep on trying to simplify our legal procedures. For California courts are hard pressed to keep pace with our population and business expansion. California has led the country in streamlining our court rules.

In 1958, for example, under legislation, the courts adopted pre-trial procedure to speed up trials and to try to settle disputes before they get to trial. By new pre-trial and discovery procedures both sides in a dispute may get to see the evidence before the case goes to trial.

IN RECENT YEARS, the federal courts have also adopted simpler rules.

They have used "masters" to help narrow the legal or factual issues in a case. Such masters are not judges but act for them under instructions.

After a master's findings are filed, a judge may then try the case on its merits on the remaining undecided facts, thus cutting the trial short.

SUCH MASTERS have helped in many a long and complicated case, like the one now before the U.S. Supreme Court over California and Arizona's water rights on the Colorado river.

Without such spade work, the Supreme Court could handle few other cases. In one complex anti-trust case, the master held 350 days of hearings, reviewed 100,000 pages of evidence, heard 173 witnesses, and looked into 45,000 documents.

SINCE 1938, referees in bankruptcy have helped to relieve federal courts by handling much of the bankruptcy work.

English courts have used masters and other extra-judicial officers to speed up cases for centuries. Indeed, some such practices go back to the Tenth century.

Although California as well as federal courts have advanced the speedy handling of cases, they are still hard at work to find better ways to move the nation's legal business through the courts.

Air Force B58 Penetrates Air Defense in Test

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI)—The Air Force's high-flying Hustler, the Convair B58, has made a 700-mile-per-hour hedge hopping trip to California to prove it can fly low and sneak under radar defenses to hit the enemy.

The Hustler flew the 1,400 miles from Fort Worth to Edwards Air Force Base in the Mojave Desert at 500 feet above the ground.

IT MADE A simulated low-level attack on the base last week and then flew back to Fort Worth—all in four hours and three minutes without stopping or refueling.

"The low-level bombing run proved that the Hustler has enemy penetration capabilities greater than any other aircraft in existence," said Frank W. Davis, Convair vice president and manager of the Fort Worth plant where the bomber is built.

THE COMPANY claims that the big four-jet bomber can fly higher than any other airplane in the world and can exceed mach 2—twice the speed of sound.

Test pilot B. A. Erickson of Convair flew the mission for the Air Force. Cameramen and other observers spotted along the course said they hardly saw the low flying bomber and did not hear it until it was well past them.

Pharmaceutical manufacturers spent 44 per cent more on research last year than they earned from all prescription sales in 1940, reports the Health News Institute.

DOUGLAS HILTON of Colorado Springs, Colo., has been named new office manager of Holiday Realty Corporation of Palm Desert. Hilton first came to the desert to set up the business office for Sprout Homes in Shadow Village, and then returned to Colorado Springs. Since his first taste of Desert living, he has "been trying to find an excuse to return" and bring his wife and two children. Hilton has purchased a home in Shadow Village, where Holiday Realty is exclusive agent.

Trial Date Set On Bookmaking

INDIO — Superior Judge Hilton H. McCabe has set Nov. 2 as the date for trial of William A. Pettit and George Randy, both of Palm Springs, on bookmaking charges.

They are accused of taking bets on horse races on April 7 in an apartment occupied by Pettit at 1415 North Indian Avenue.

The two were indicted by the County Grand Jury on April 29 and placed under $1,000 bond each.

Brown Accepts Membership In Kenya Club

Governor Edmund G. "Pat" Brown apparently has no fear of elephants. He proved this in becoming a charter member of the Mount Kenya Safari Club, of Kenya, British East Africa.

This, Governor Brown pointed out in a letter to Mount Kenya Safari Club's Ray Ryan and William Holden, poses a problem. What will his friends' reaction be when they see the gold elephant hung on the wall of his study in the Governor's mansion at Sacramento?

California's Democratic Governor is, nevertheless, going to proudly display the pachydermic symbol of Republicanism.

He joins these celebrated fellow members: Sir Winston Churchill, Clark Gable, Walt Disney, Duke of Manchester, William R. Hearst Jr., Conrad N. Hilton, John Wayne, U.S. Senators Lyndon Johnson and Everett M. Dirksen, U.S. Rep. John McCormack, Lily Pons, General Curtis E. LeMay, British speed king Donald Campbell, U.S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, Rear Admiral John Ford, U.S.N.R. and Joan Crawford.

Firemen Dismiss Auxiliary But Gals Stick Around

ORELAND, Pa. (UPI)—The "boys" at the Oreland Volunteer Fire Company found out you just can't chuck the ladies' auxiliary without running into a court battle.

The all-male membership of the fire company gave the 35 women in the auxiliary the heave-ho last July. A source close to the company said the ouster was an "act taken by a corporation."

MRS. MARY H. BUNTING, auxiliary president, said she knew of no reason for the order to disband.

"They just don't want us," she said. "They want the building to themselves."

The executive board of the company ordered members of the auxiliary barred from the firehouse and instructed them to turn over $600 in cash and $300 in government bonds reported in their treasury.

TUESDAY, THE drummed out women drummed up action of their own.

They hired Dist. Atty. Bernard D. Joseph in a private capacity and filed a suit in Montgomery County Court in Norristown, seeking to enjoin the men from forcing them to disband.

"We're trying to regain our privileges," Mrs. Bunting said.

SHE EXPLAINED that these included pool rights, use of the social hall, and most important, raising funds to aid and equip the fire company as a gesture in this suburban Philadelphia community.

"One of our card parties raised $1,000 toward a new building," she said. "On another occasion we raised $500 for whatever the company needed most. In most cases, we raised money for equipment."

SHE SAID ABOUT five members of the auxiliary have husbands who belong to the company but "they were outvoted on this question, of course." She said the company has more than 25 active members.

Leonard Supple, company president, declined comment on the suit or the reason for banning the women.

Judge E. Arnold Forrest set Oct. 16 for a hearing.

Mail Questions to:
Palm Springs Air
Conditioning Co.,
Box 1144, Palm Springs

QUESTION:
Is it necessary for me to leave a window open during the heating season for fresh air?

ANSWER:
The majority of residential air conditioning systems in this area are designed using 100% return air. In ordinary dwellings no special provisions for controlling chemical purity of air is necessary—satisfactory air change will take place by leakage around doors and windows. If the building is constructed air tight, means must be made to introduce fresh or outside air to maintain proper air qualities.

RAYMOND BURR is continuing his reputation as one of Hollywood's most capable actors in the Perry Mason series, seen every Saturday night over CBS Television.

BURR IS SUCCESS AS PERRY MASON

Long one of Hollywood's busiest and most able actors, Raymond Burr in recent months has become one of Television's most successful stars in his role of "Perry Mason," Erle Stanley Gardner's world-famous attorney-sleuth, seen on the CBS Television Network each week.

Perhaps Burr's reputation for acting ability, knowledge of scripts and for being a quick study — the Burr came to Hollywood in 1946 to test for "Sister Kenny" at RKO, marking his second visit to the film capital. He was signed to a contract and was assigned to "The Robe" as its star. The picture was never made and for six months Burr was kept in limbo. He finally convinced RKO to release him, and thus began the career of one of Hollywood's busiest free-lance actors.

ABILITY to learn the most difficult and demanding roles in minimal time — was responsible for his having been selected for what is admittedly one of the toughest jobs in the entertainment industry, the title role in the "Perry Mason" series.

SINCE THE SERIES went into production in April, 1957, Burr has averaged no more than four hours sleep each night. Being on the television screen more than 90 per cent of each Saturday night's hour-long show is comparable to learning a Shakespearean play each week. As a matter of fact, learning the Bard's words might be easier than the highly-technical legalistic dialogue required for the "Perry Mason" courtroom scenes.

AMONG HIS TOP pictures have been George Stevens' "A Place in The Sun," for which he was prominently mentioned as an Oscar candidate as a result of his hard-driving performance as the district attorney who sent Montygomery Clift to the chair; Alfred Hitchcock's "Rear Window," in which he was padded, aged and even endured a hair-cut to portray the traveling salesman-murderer; and Alan Ladd's "Cry In The Night," in which Burr played a psychopath.

Burr was born in New Westminster, British Columbia, Canada, on May 21. He is the son of William John Burr, a merchant, and Minerva Smith Burr, a noted concert pianist and music teacher.

Television Notes

WNTA-TV, local station in the metropolitan New York area, has an ambitious drama project scheduled for Oct. 12 that will make an impact on TV generally if it goes well. A single play, recorded on video tape, will be aired seven times each week. Each performance is for two hours—8 to 10 Monday through Saturday nights and 3 to 5 p.m. Sundays. These will involve major actors, directors and writers. The first attraction will be Judith Anderson in "Medea," which she made famous on the stage. The second will be Graham Greene's "The Power and the Glory."

'Entertainment' Show Is Praised

NEW YORK (UPI) — What are those words the critics tack on to those uninhibited Broadway musicals? "Loud," "tuneful," "fast-moving?"

SPORTS in the SUN

Thursday, October 8, 1959 The Desert Sun 11

O'DONNELL GOLF CLUB, the oldest golf course in the City of Palm Springs, was built as a private course in the front yard of Tom O'Donnell. He later turned it over to the City of Palm Springs, but first named a group of 25 men to run it. The golf course has no connection with the Committee of 25, although many members of the golf club are members of the Committee of 25.

"WINTER GOLF CAPITAL OF THE WORLD"

O'Donnell Golf Club, First in City, is Booming

(This is the sixth in a series of articles on Palm Springs area golf courses. Written, compiled and edited by The Desert Sun sports staff, the articles are dedicated to a better understanding of the golf facilities in the Winter Golf Capital of the World.—Editor)

By FRED C. WEIGEL

The carpet of emerald green in downtown Palm Springs signifies one of the biggest economies of residents in the Winter Golf Capital of the World — golf.

This "green spot" in the desert is O'Donnell Golf Club, the very first golf course built in the desert area, and for many years the only one in the city limits of Palm Springs.

The course was started in 1929 by Tom O'Donnell, one of the "big four" in the early days of the California Oil Industry.

O'DONNELL asked his gardener, John Kline, to build him a golf course in his "front yard," and a short time later, at a cost estimated at $200,000 the course was done.

To O'Donnell it was private, and only a few close friends were invited to play on it.

But in 1945, in a deed of civic pride, he turned it over to the City of Palm Springs, and with it the city got a 99-year lease.

O'DONNELL set up a group of 25 men to run the golf club, and this was the nucleus of what today is the membership of the O'Donnell Golf Course.

The golf club today is run by a group of twenty-five men — not having anything to do with the Committee of 25 — and today the president of this group is J. E. "Dad" French, himself an old friend of Tom O'Donnell's and one of the very few who were "permitted" to play on the course at the time it was constructed.

OTHER MEMBERS of the Board of Directors include: B. F. Shearer, vice president; G. G. Ingram, secretary-treasurer; and directors J. H. Ballinger, R. H. Fleet, M. A. Hicks, and F. A. Purcell.

All of these men were named to the original group by Tom O'Donnell.

The O'Donnell Golf Club is built on 35 acres of ground and contains 9 holes, but the inauguration of double greens makes an 18-hole course out of it.

WITH THE 18-HOLES, golfers have a total of 5,412 yards to play, "not long, but easy enough" that many of the older golfers like to play it.

Number 2 fairway is the longest at 320 yards, par 5, and the shortest hole is number 5, over the end of the mountain for 125 yards, par 3.

THIS NUMBER 5 HOLE is one of the most unique on any desert golf link. Although it was not intended at the time the course was constructed, a natural landmark, the edge of a mountain, is a barrier between the tee and the green, and now golfers test their skill in going over the top. Many have mastered the shot.

The course is built at the very edge of the San Jacinto foothills, and the greens and fairways curve in and out of the coves in the mountain-side.

ABOVE THE GOLF COURSE is a point of the mountain that Tom O'Donnell had cleared off and rumor has it that he was going to build his home here. Today this point is known as "Inspiration Point" and yearly is the scene of LARRY SITTER, manager of the O'Donnell Golf Club has been with the organization for 22 years.

Easter Sunrise services — possibly the only sunrise service in the United States that is held on a golf course.

At the reins of O'Donnell is easy-going 45-year-old Larry Sitter, who at the end of this year will celebrate 22 years as an employee.

HE BEGAN as a starter on the first tee, later went into the office as assistant manager. He went into the Navy in 1944 and returned to his job when the war was over.

John Kline was the first manager of O'Donnell, and he was followed by George Howard, present professional, who held both jobs for a few years. Because of the increased membership and added duties on Howard, the O'Donnell group appointed Ernie LaFleur, and in 1950 Larry Sitter became manager, and has held they hold the Desert Senior Tournament, combining the play with two other courses in the area.

This year the club has listed the following tournaments on the local course: Palm Springs Desert Seniors, Nov. 17; and again on Jan. 12; the 25th annual Men's Invitational, March 13-20; and the 25th annual Women's Invitational, Apr. 2-6.

The man who has the big job in getting the course ready and keeping it ready is Hubert Kilpatrick, greens superintendent, and it is because of him and the other employees like him, that O'Donnell has the reputation of being one of the nicest courses in Southern California.

O'DONNELL is known as the home of the Senior Golf championship matches, and each year

CLUBHOUSE FOR O'DONNELL is a spanish-type building, single story, containing business offices, professional shop, and cart garage. There are also locker rooms. Only in the recent years has O'Donnell put golf carts on the course. (Desert Sun Photos).

Two Ailing Pitchers in Crucial Game Today

Billy Casper Tops Field in Hesperia Play

Eddie Susalla of Indian Wells in 72-Hole Tournament

HESPERIA (UPI) — National Open champion Billy Casper teed off as the favorite today in the 72-hole third annual Hesperia Open golf tournament.

Among the entrants in the star-studded field is Eddie Susalla, Indian Wells Country Club pro.

The round, easy-going Casper who plays out of nearby Apple Valley is on a hot streak, fresh from a victory in the Oregon Centennial Open at Portland Sunday.

He picked up $2,880 as first prize in the Oregon event and looked to be a good bet to top his fellow-pros once again here for the $2,000 top prize from the total of $30,000.

Contesting this forecast were some 50 other golfers who play for pay including the defending champion, John McMullin of Fair Oaks; Bob Rosburg, the 1959 PGA champion with the baseball swing from Palo Alto; George Bayer, the 240-pound slugger from San Gabriel; slender Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass.; and Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., who won the Hesperia Open in 1957.

ALSO PRESENT but not necessarily also rans were Gene Littler, of San Diego, who finished second here last year and in so doing set a course record with a 10-under-par 62; slim Jerry Barber, the little pro from Los Angeles; Dow Finsterwald, the 1957 PGA champion from Tequesta, Fla.; and the former open champion, Lloyd Mangrum, pro at Apple Valley.

In Wednesday's warmup pro-amateur event, Mangrum and Los Angeles real estate developer Newton Bass teamed for a low-ball score of 60 to win. Tommy Lema of Sacramento had the best score among the professionals—a 67—to win $316.50 in the pro-am.

Seven Entered In Mojave Trot

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — Seven class A entries were in the field for today's running of the $4,000 Mojave Trot at Hollywood Park.

Strong contenders in what appeared to be a tight race included Hardy Royal, Renato Tass, Proud Hanover, Timely Way, Carol Rodney, Mr. T. V. and Royal Rodney.

In Wednesday's opener of the 35-day fall meeting, W. E. Cash won the $4,000 Pasadena Pace.

A crowd of 9,217 watched Tom Burlaine and Irish Gallon finish second and third, respectively.

The winner paid $28, $9.20 and $6.60. The time was 2:01 3/5 for the mile.

Cervantes Favored 2 to 1 Over McCoy

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Pelon Cervantes, Mexican, ruled a 2-1 favorite over Pat McCoy, Galway, Ireland, in tonight's scheduled 10-round main event at Olympic Auditorium.

McCoy, who claims the featherweight championship of the Irish Free State, will be making his first California appearance.

BURY SKI FIGURE

MUNISING, Mich. (UPI)—Funeral services will be held today for Albert Oas, 92, one of the founders of the National Ski Association. Oas died Monday night.

Stanford Ace Now Leads in Total Offense

Dick Norman Opens Wider Gap After Saturday's Victory

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stanford star Dick Norman, by walloping last year's champion Dick Bass in their face-to-face meeting, opened a wider lead in the race for the national total offense title in college football.

Norman, a passing star in the Stanford tradition of Frankie Albert and John Brodie, rolled up a total of 221 yards gained in Stanford's win over College of Pacific last Saturday while Bass of COP nipped only 149.

Norman thus boosted his total to 594 yards gained in three games, all but 18 of them via passing in which he also leads the nation with a total of 576 yards gained.

PERVIS ATKINS of New Mexico State, the national scoring leader with a total of 49 points on eight touchdowns and one extra point, stands second to Norman in the total offense race with 486 yards, followed by versatile Richie Lucas of Penn State with 437.

In passing, Norman is trailed by Gale Weidner of Colorado with 411 yards and Pete Hall of Marquette with 410.

Ranked on completions, Norman has 48, Weidner 34, and Hall 33.

Atkins is followed in the scoring race by Phil Lavoie of South Carolina with 38 points and Abner Hayes of North Texas State with 32.

THE HARD-HITTING Atkins also leads the nation in rushing, having piled up 486 yards in four games. Tom Nolan of Iowa State is next with 347 yards in three games and Holan Jones of Arizona State has 338 in three games.

Chris Burford, Norman's chief target on the Stanford team, leads the nation in pass catching with 17 receptions. Bill Carpenter, Army's celebrated "lonely end," is second with 14. Sammy Oates of Hardin Simmons also has 14 catches but has gained fewer yards.

Other individual leaders in statistics issued today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau are Joe Zuger of Arizona State in punting with an average of 49.9 yards per punt, Grover Garvin of California in punt returns with 116 yards, and Joe Allen of Hardin Simmons in kickoff returns with 205 yards.

L.A. Firemen Meet In Salfon Sea Event

SALTON SEA — A team composed of Ted Ringer, Dick Wyckoff and Don Gillett Sunday won the Los Angeles Fire Department water skiing competition here.

Three-man teams alternated between skipper, driver and skier responsibilities. More than two dozen Los Angeles firemen competed.

Junior Net Event On at San Diego

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The National Junior Veterans Tennis Championships opened today for a four-day run at Arden Hills Tennis Club.

Top-seeded for the event was Gardner Mulloy, Miami, Fla. He was followed in order by Bert Brown, Los Angeles, and Bob Galaway, San Diego, who comprised the top-seeded doubles team.

REDSKINS REALLY HOT, BRAWLS MARK SCRIMMAGE DRILLS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Temperatures cooled off today among the Washington Redskins after a one-hour scrimmage marked by a fist fight and another near brawl.

Coach Mike Nixon's unusually tough contact work Wednesday erupted into a brief but vicious battle between halfback Jim Podolety and rookie defensive end Ari Gob.

Another fight between rookie wingback Ben Scotti and veteran offensive end Joe Walton was averted only when other players stepped between the two as they were winding up to throw punches.

Nixon, whose Redskins are the only National Football League team holding a actual practice scrimmage during the regular season, said he wasn't disturbed over the incidents.

All players concerned shook hands after the scrimmage and Nixon was smiling.

Stitch Upsets Dupas, Seeks Shot at Title

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Rudell Stitch said today he was a new fighter with the same old ambition — a shot at Don Jordan's welterweight title.

Stitch, who built his ring reputation with a wicked but sometimes wild right hand, surprised Ralph Dupas and a lot of other people here and in a national television audience Wednesday night by outboxing the fancy fighter from New Orleans in a 10-rounder.

The Louisville church deacon won a unanimous decision over Dupas by his sudden-death counterpunching, repeatedly knocking aside the No. 3 ranking welter's flicking jabs with his own left, then crossing over jolting rights to the head.

Stitch piled up points early, catching Dupas on the ropes midway in the fourth round to belabor him with a dozen left and right hooks.

MSU Still Tops Small Colleges

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mississippi Southern, Miami of Ohio, East Texas State and West Chester (Pa.) State—"little giants" from four sections of the country — ranked 1-2-3-4 today in United Press International's small college football ratings.

Buffalo N.Y. was fifth, Chattanooga, which tackles Alabama of the major college division Saturday, was sixth. Montana State College, Middle Tennessee State, Delaware and Xavier (Ohio) rounded out the top 10 in that order.

Volleyball Practice To Start October 21

Practice for Volleyball competition will start October 21. Howard Haddock of the City Recreation Department, said today. Practice hours are from 7 to 10 p.m. Any who would like to play or manage a team in the league should contact the city office before October 21, Haddock said.

Agajanian Plans State Fair Races

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — J. C. Agajanian said today he had signed a contract to stage his ninth annual 100-mile USAC national championship big car race at the California State Fairgrounds Oct. 25.

Dodgers Hope to Finish It

CHICAGO (UPI) — Early Wynn, a righthander with a sore elbow, and Johnny Podres, a left hander with an ailing back, carried the pitching hopes of the Chicago White Sox and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the sixth game of the World Series today.

Although he has had only two days rest, Wynn was called upon by Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox to keep their series hopes alive. They faced sudden death, trailing the Dodgers three games to two in this best four out of seven series.

Manager Walt Alston went along with Podres, the winner of the second game, confident that he

DODGERS REIGN AS 13-5 FAVORITES TO WIN WORLD SERIES

NEW YORK (UPI) — Broadway oddsmakers continued to list the Dodgers as 13-5 favorites today to win the World Series. The White Sox remained slight 11-10 favorites for today's sixth game.

would close it out and bring to the West Coast its first world baseball championship.

"HE TELLS ME HIS back feels okeh," Alston said, "so there isn't any reason why he shouldn't beat them again."

Wynn said his sore right elbow was "okeh" and that he was "honored" by being selected to keep the White Sox in the running. The 39-year-old star, who won 22 games during the regular season, won the first game, 11-0, leaving in the eighth inning when his elbow stiffened. He started the fourth game in Los Angeles and was knocked out in the fourth inning when the Dodgers scored four runs, set up for the most part by inept White Sox fielding.

"There's no reason to save myself, now," Wynn observed. "We have got to win today or there isn't any tomorrow, so it doesn't matter how much rest I've had. I'm honored that the skipper picked me because both Billy Pierce and Dick Donovan are ready to go, too."

WITH A SOUTHPAW going against them, Lopez said he would stick to the lineup which won the fifth game in Los Angeles Tuesday, 1-0. That means Bubba Phillips will play third base with Jim McNamany in left field. Sherman Lollar will be in the cleanup spot in the batting order.

Alston made one lineup change, putting Duke Snider, who had been out with his chronic ailing knee, in center field. That gives him six left-handed hitters, counting Podres, in his batting order.

THE SOX, WHO again will wear the black stockings they wore in the fifth game, were glad to get back to brick-walled Comiskey Park.

"It feels good to be back in a real ball park," said Nellie Fox. "That Coliseum Park is for the birds — not baseball."

Lopez said he was happy to be back home, too. Neither Lopez nor Alston would speculate on their seventh game pitcher — if a seventh game is necessary. However, Alston was expected to go with either Don Drysdale, the third game winner, or his relief ace, Larry Sherry, if Sherry is not needed today.

Lopez said it could be Donovan, Pierce or Bob Shaw, Tuesday's winner. Donovan appeared to be the most likely choice.

PACKER SIDELINED GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers do not expect fullback Jim Taylor to play in its football game against the San Francisco Forty Niners.

BOWLING

SCRATCH LEAGUE

Desert Sun-KDES, Boron Richfield and Massey Rock and Sand were tied for the lead in the Palm Springs Scratch League with identical 6-3 scores after three weeks of bowling. Desert Box and Team Six had 4-5 marks and Press Construction had 1-8.

Sun-KDES bowlers rolled the high team series, 2575, which is also high for the season and Boron-Richfield topped 998 pins for the high team game of the week. The season's record is held by Massey Rock at 914.

Bob Blauvelt, of Team Six, rolled high individual series, 560 and is tied with Kengo-Takano of Desert Box for high series of the year at that figure. Al Rittlebender of Desert Sun-KDES had the high individual game of the week—218—and Newell Carlton of Desert Box holds the season's high game record at 225.

FRANCHISE LEAGUE

City National Bank bowlers continued to lead the Palm Springs Franchise League after three weeks of activity at Palm Springs

Bowl. They have a mark of 10-2. Other team standings: The Barn, 8-4; Indio, 7-5; Plaza Barber Shop, 7-5; J&S Paving, 4-8 and Stack Chevrolet, 0-12.

Last week City National bowlers topped 2904 pins for the high team series of the week and the high mark for the season. They also rolled a 999 game, high for the week and season.

Leo Gould set a new mark for the season with a 619 series and also rolled high game, 211. Al Aguilar of City National holds the high game mark for the season at 224.

EXCELLENT MEAT BUYS REPORTED

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Shoppers can find excellent buys in pork, beef, lamb and poultry this weekend as a variety of foods continue to flow to market in good volume.

Eggs, cheeses and other dairy products also continue choice values.

VEGETABLE BINS offer a fairly good assortment of items, the best values being potatoes, sweet potatoes, onions, squash, tomatoes, carrots, cabbage, snap beans, cucumbers, celery, cauliflower and green peppers.

In the fruit line, plentiful supplies of many varieties, avocados, pears, grapefruit, lemons, and Valencia oranges.

Fish in excellent supply include canned tuna, shrimp, and fish sticks.

THESE ARE THE weekend's best values, nationally. Now, here's a closer look at plentiful foods in the West: Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming:

Consumers will find ample supplies of meats, eggs and poultry in the markets this week. Some items are priced slightly lower than a week ago. Pork supplies are plentiful in all markets, and supplies of beef range from moderate to ample. Some cuts of pork and beef are priced 1 to 2 cents a pound lower.

LAMB IS IN ample supply in California markets, and prices are down about 1 cent a pound. All classes of poultry continue in ample supply, and fryer chickens are down 1 to 2 cents a pound in California markets.

Egg prices have declined 1 to 2 cents a dozen in the San Francisco area, and top quality large eggs are slightly weaker in price in the Los Angeles area. Egg supplies continued plentiful in most Pacific Coast markets.

FRESH FRUITS and vegetables still are in plentiful supply, including apples, avocados, lemons, Bartlett pears, bunched vegetables, cauliflower, celery, dry onions, bell peppers, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and squash. In good supply are casaba and Persian melons, grapefruit, Italia and Tokay grapes, Valencia oranges, cabbage, cucumbers, lettuce and potatoes.

Best buys in fish are salmon, halibut, rockfish, flounder and sablefish.

The long-heralded and much publicized Corvair is America's first "compact" car and the only one with the revolutionary rear-mounted six-cylinder opposed air-cooled engine. Shown with them is Vivian Connor, Mrs. Freese's daughter. (Desert Sun Photo).

SAUND PLANS NEW INSURANCE TRY

Special to The Desert Sun

Congressman D. S. Saund today announced plans to reintroduce legislation in January to provide a broad health insurance program for 250,000 retired Federal Civil Service employees, disabled employees, their wives and minor children.

The legislation, Saund said, would place these people on the same basis as active civil employees and future retirees who are covered by the Federal Employees' Health Benefit Act of 1959, which was passed by Congress and signed by the President last month.

Similar legislation introduced late this session received widespread bi-partisan support in the Congress, the congressman said, but there was not time for action by the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee.

He added that the Administration was opposed to the measure.

Marine Sergeant Dies at 29 Palms In Auto Crash

TWENTYNINE PALMS — A Marine sergeant was killed in a rear-end traffic collision near here early yesterday, the California Highway Patrol office at Indio reported.

Dead on arrival at the Twentynine Palms Marine Base hospital was M-Sgt. Frank Earl Jenks Jr., 38.

The CHP said Jenks' auto slammed into the rear end of a car driven by Sherman Wesley Rabico, no address given, while both vehicles were northbound on Adobe Road near Amboy Road.

The crash occurred as Rabico was getting set to make a left turn onto Amboy Road. The deputy coroner in San Bernardino said there would be no inquest.

OREGON'S SIAMESE TWINS HAVE 'GOOD CHANCE' TO LIVE

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Doctors gave Siamese twins separated by a five-hour operation a good chance for survival yesterday.

The three-month-old twins, Jeanett Kim and Dennett Linn Stubblefield, had been joined at the breast bone and liver. A team of four surgeons separated them Tuesday.

Every hour they survive following the operation gives them a better chance, a spokesman for the University of Oregon Medical School Hospital said.

The girls had been flown here the day following their birth in Nyssa, Ore., and remained under close observation until the operation.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Stubblefield, were staying at the home of a friend or relatives.

Hawaii Tagged As 'Islands of Opportunity'

BEVERLY HILLS (UPI)—Rep. Daniel K. Inouye, Hawaii's first congressman, has labeled his home state "America's islands of opportunity."

In a speech Tuesday before Los Angeles Civic and Business Leaders, Inouye, a Democrat, said that statehood had given Hawaii's rapidly expanding economy a shot in the arm.

"Today, in Hawaii," said the former World War II hero, "we have a modern, progressive, completely American economy, supported by a wide range of diversified activity."

"We live in an atmosphere of booming development. In the past five years the tempo of this development has quickened amazingly," Inouye added.

Inouye, a Japanese-American, said the islands had more than 550 manufacturers of a wide variety of products and that the tourist industry was one of the brightest spots in Hawaii's development.

USC Cracks Down On Frat Hazing

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — University of Southern California has cracked down on fraternity activities in an aftermath of the death of a student during one group's hazing rites.

SC President Norman H. Topping issued a set of rules Tuesday that require all fraternities and sororities to meet the all-student grade average or be forbidden from initiating new members into the active chapter and pledging new members or be expelled from the campus if grades are below average for three straight semesters.

Mexico Leader Invited to L.A.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—City and county officials Tuesday invited President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico to visit Los Angeles during his forthcoming tour of the United States.
